NEW BUSINESS

Auction Dinner:NEW BUSINESS

Auction Dinner: H2O serves the food. Already contacted Olive Garden for the Lasagna. Usually serve about 140 for dinner.

Auction: Nicole is working on the RSVPs for the dinner. During the dinner the choir is going to sing songs from the spring musical. The class who has the most people attend will get rockets kits for each kid in the class to launch in the spring. Possible have a boy and a girl from each class be at the auction to help sell their class baskets.

Auction Kids: Lisa Sayers, Michelle Kelley agreed to co-chair. Auction night agenda- Games in the cafeteria, cookie walk, DJ, Pizza, ventriloquist and movie

Box Tops: Putting reminder flyers in the Feb 3rd Wednesday folder. The next turn in date is Feb 12th.

Books: Julie Jennings Provide a room for leveled readers for K-3. Don't have the room in the school right now. Is this something the teachers are interested in? PTO fund books and store them in the classroom. Mrs. Ike wants more time to discuss this with the teachers.

Book Fair: Not going to have Spring Book Fair.

Programming: Arts in the classroom-going to pay an extra $150 to have 2 shows so it is not so crowded.

COSI: Time to select the 2016-2017 programs. Cost $1000. 1st choice is It's Simply Chemistry and 2nd choice is Current Conditions.

Smencil: Kelli Henley to chair. Will come to school and sell smencils.

Special Funding: For 2015-2015 school year PTO will assist in up to $200 for field trip assistance per grade level. Amount to be evaluated at the beginning of each school year.

PTO Goals: Sent survey out to teachers. Haven't got very many back yet.

Open Floor: 3rd grade teachers would like a subscription to Storyworks for next year. Need to pay for the subscription soon. PTO paid for the Young Authors Conference last year, asking for funding again this year. Cost is about $140.
