Concrete Poem

A poem that is written so the shape of the word matches the subject of the poem.

Example:

CANDY CANES

Candy canes are ohh so sweet, I love to unwrap a tasty treat so many kinds so fun to eat pepper mint or cherry swirls blue berry with tiny swirls

Write your own!

1. Choose an object/topic.

2. Lightly draw an outline of the picture.

3. Make a list of words/phrases that describe your topic.

4. Write your poem on the outline of your picture. You can fill in the shape with words as well.

5. Erase the outline marks.
More Concrete Poem Examples

Ice-cream is fun to eat rich taste enjoyed by mag n e ys

Tornado spins round and round. Powerful and scary if they touch the ground. Dark skies in the afternoon make me want to hide in my room. Covers over my head as I hide in fear and dread. by Kristina

Apples are juicy and have a big crunch. Apples are red and so fun to munch.