The goal of the Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) Award Program is to encourage young women to participate in public affairs by recognizing a young woman's commitment to the volunteer sector, evidence of volunteer leadership achievements and a dedication to the empowerment of women.

Applicants are asked to reflect on their voluntary commitment to their school and to their community and the problems limiting the empowerment of women in their own country and worldwide. The Zonta International Young Women in Public Affairs Award Program looks to the young women of today to be the leaders of tomorrow.

Applications are due by March 1, 2019. Applicants must be age 16-19 on 1st April, 2019. Classified members and employees of Zonta International and Zonta International Foundation, and their family members, are not eligible to apply for the Awards.

Zonta International is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy. The Young Women in Public Affairs Award is one of several programs for women and girls sponsored by the Springfield chapter of Zonta International. The Award is funded by voluntary contributions to the Zonta International Foundation YWPA Award Fund.
